

Salem's Ropes: New Novel About the Haunted Ropes Mansion by Amazon Bestselling Author To Be Released

A New Book about the Haunted Ropes Mansion in Salem, Massachusetts Written by Amazon Bestselling Author Joseph C. Gioconda

SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS, UNITED STATES, September 23, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A new novel inspired by the shocking true historical accounts of the haunted Ropes Mansion in Salem, Massachusetts is being released.

The book is being launched in conjunction with the Peabody Essex Museum. Amazon bestselling author of The Pope's Butcher Joseph C. Gioconda will be at the Ropes Mansion at 318 Essex Street on Saturday, October 16 from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. for the book launch. He will be signing and giving away free copies of the book.

Inspired by true historical events and figures, Salem's Ropes is the story of America's oldest and darkest secrets.

After a business trip to Boston, George Lawson announces to his family that he has purchased the Ropes Mansion in Salem; a historic mansion that is 300 years old. His wife and daughter are skeptical but acquiesce. Over forty of the mansion's owners have died unnaturally, were murdered, or committed suicide since 1720. Salem's residents warn George about living in the Ropes, but he is convinced he can uncover the mystery.

The family is torn apart after George becomes increasingly obsessed with uncovering the dark history of Salem and their new home. He discovers mysterious objects and Masonic symbols carved onto the walls of their basement. After a smoke alarm goes off in the middle of the night, firefighters discover smoldering embers behind a basement wall – along with strange human remains. Police are called and suspect that there is more to the story than George will admit. Like countless others in the Ropes house before, George and his family fight a descent into madness.

Free Advanced Reader Copies are available to reviewers and members of the. One hundred free digital copies are also being offered in a giveaway on GoodReads.com.

The book will be available in paperback, eBook/Kindle on Amazon, Barnes & Noble, Ingram Spark and from other retailers and distributors. An audiobook is being simultaneously released.
