It has given the tourists a chance of locating hotels and perceiving huge discounts whenever they visit Pakistani cities. These websites owned by Advent Interactive have been providing exceptional services accompanying valuable information for travelers since their grand launch on September 2, 2021. The principal aim of this extension is to use the company's capabilities to present the most extensive inventory of hotels in Pakistan to the tourists, which are bookable online.

Traveling to Pakistan has become a lot easier and hassle-free with the launch of new hotel booking sites of different cities offering huge discounts and convenience to tourists. The launch of these websites has made gaining information and discerning hotels at the fingertips of the tourists.

Naqi Khan, the company's CEO, acknowledged, "Pakistan has many of the fascinating spots of the world; it can rival other prime attractions of other countries." He further emphasized that his main concern is to provide the tourists an effortless way of savoring the lushness and elegance of Pakistan.

The launch of this valuable service is not just for the local tourists, but for the vacationers from all over the globe who wish to visit Pakistan. These websites have been touted as a premier service that has made hotel booking a lot easier.

The features of the service:

Asked about the kind of service that the travelers can expect from these online booking sites, Naqi Khan enumerated multiple privileges waiting for the travelers.

"Travelers wish to get their hands on all the information before they decide to visit any destination place, to ease that up in case of Pakistan, my company designed different sites that can not only serve as a valuable information resource but will entertain the tourists to get their desired hotels," Naqi Khan explained.

The new websites feature complete information about Pakistan's areas, hotels, and everything needed to complete one's stay. A prompt visit to these websites is sufficient to give prospect tourists a sketch of what's in store for them.

Mr. Naqi Khan further explained that tourists would need just a single click to find the amenities and services offered for visitors by their desired hotels. "The tourists can also get their hands on different spas, top places to visit, the best time to visit, and other helpful information, just a few clicks away of the mouse."

To add more value for the money, these websites further provide the tourists an easy way of availing huge discounts of up to 33% for their hotel bookings in Pakistan. With all these being offered, getting to Pakistan has become cheaper, convenient, and extremely exciting.
