IRVINE, CA, UNITED STATES, September 22, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As Revive Concierge continues to expand, they remain unwavering in their devotion to an innovative and collaborative work environment. Team members are encouraged to take ownership of their work with the creative freedom to problem solve. This in culmination with support from everyone within the organization makes it feel like a family rather than a job.

Revive Concierge at Timmy Awards

Co-founder Dalip Jaggi believes that hiring people with diverse skill sets combined with a mission-first mentality creates an ideal environment. He noted that "we have a great team that truly believes in helping homeowners. When work feels like play, it brings positive energy and motivation to the workplace."

Revive Concierge is a creative real estate financing company that is democratizing home flipping. They provide turnkey repairs and renovations for homeowners who want to sell their homes for the highest price possible, with a custom plan unique to every listing.

As we onboard a diverse range of employees to our growing team, there is one constant. When asked why they chose to join Revive, every single one of them mentioned a sense of belonging and unity throughout the company. We strive to make work feel like play-- this takes mission driven and dedicated individuals that share our vision. Being selected as a finalist for the Timmy Awards only goes to illustrate our amazing team culture!
