

Macabre Cinema Haunted House Back to Haunting after a year Hiatus

The Trifecta of Kansas City's Top Haunted Attractions Once Again Becomes Reality

KANSAS CITY, MO, UNITED STATES,
September 24, 2021 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Watching horror movies brings thrills and chills, while experiencing a horror movie inside a haunted cinema is another dimension and reality with the opening of Macabre Cinema Haunted House this Friday, September 24. Macabre didn't open in 2020 as haunt officials wanted to focus on safely operating the Beast and Edge of Hell haunted houses, also in Kansas City's West Bottoms neighborhood.

Macabre Cinema Haunted House Opens After a Season Off

People were clamoring for entertainment when many places didn't open in 2020. Macabre Cinema's opening alongside neighboring Beast and Edge of Hell now offer the trifecta of haunt experiences. Last year, Beast and Edge of Hell opened with many new safety protocols, including mask requirements, temperature checks, and hand sanitization. These procedures officials credit for the past season's success and the confidence to open the third house.

We did catch quite a bit of heat from Macabre Cinema fans for not opening last year, but we'll make up for it this year with even more frightening fun.”

"We didn't know what to expect last year," said Amber Arnett-Bequeaith, also known as the Queen of Haunts. "But we were thrilled that we were able to get through the season and offer a great show to all those who came out. We did catch quite a bit of heat from Macabre Cinema fans for not opening last year, but we'll make up for it this year with even more frightening fun."
