Bryan Scott, Managing Partner and Founder at Panos said of the investment, "The acquisition of Prime is a synergistic fit to the Memorial platform and geographically meaningful in both Dallas-Fort Worth and Houston, Texas in enabling patients access to quality-focused and value-oriented healthcare services at scale. This business combination creates opportunity for incremental revenue generation and to further build upon its leadership status in the litigation service side of the diagnostic imaging and pain management business. We are excited about the add-on and look forward to continuing working with Memorial's management team and our capital partners to drive significant value creation."

CEO of Memorial MRI & Diagnostic Kim Tran said, "Prime is a perfect fit for Memorial. We will amplify the patient treatment experience by deploying Memorial's care pathways throughout Prime's facilities and expanding pain offerings into their imaging-only facilities. We enjoy working Panos and their trusted capital partners and look forward to the next phase of Memorial's growth.
