SOFIA, SLATINA DISTRICT, BULGARIA, September 24, 2021 / EINPresswire.com/ -- GoMeat is a digital marketplace connecting consumers with their local specialty (halal/kosher) stores. Buying meat is a mundane task for most people but for specialty consumers, it can be a hectic and time-consuming chore. Specialty consumers are particular about the meat they consume (be it for religious or health reasons) thus are willing to pay a premium for it. The market is well-aware of this dependency and in recent years several cases of fraudulent certifications and lack of supply chain traceability have come forth. Thus, GoMeat is proud to be the pioneer in blockchain-based specialty meat certifications.

Since 2019, GoMeat has processed over 6k orders and garnered over 5k loyal users. GoMeat application and website bring convenience to the doorstep of specialty consumers by providing web-based ordering and same-day delivery options. GoMeat is the first project of its kind serving this

$1.7 trillion industry and empowering local specialty stores.

Specialty meat refers to any meat prepared following strict guidelines. Any meat slaughtered and prepared according to Islamic principles is called Halal meanwhile the meat prepared according to Jewish guidelines is called Kosher. The same applies to foods and beverages. While specialty meat certainly is a niche but it is a massive one with over 1.8 billion consumers around the world. These consumers are not just restricted to the Middle East as it is a $32+ billion market in North America alone. Despite the presence of over 10,000 specialty meat stores in the US alone, no dedicated delivery service has catered to this group until GoMeat's launch in 2019.

Specialty consumers have been completely overlooked by mainstream ordering and delivery services and this became even more apparent during the COVID-19 lockdowns when such consumers were left with limited choices. Buying from a specialty store can be a chaotic experience owing to the fact that over 90% of specialty stores have not gone digital due to a lack of resources or reluctance to adopt the technology. GoMeat is helping digitalize the industry by providing stores with a tablet (no setup fee), extensive marketing, 12/7 customer support & delivery. Additionally, customers can avail fresh same-day delivery, 12/7 customer support, amazing discounts & a loyalty program when they order through the GoMeat platform. Traditional Specialty meat certification has proven to be costly, inefficient, fraudulent, and risky. Specialty customers deserve transparency so they can make educated choices which is why GoMeat in-app Blockchain-based certifications will keep stores, customers & certification boards notified about a store's specialty verification. GoMeat formal believes that the future of the specialty industry must be built upon blockchain which is why introducing a blockchain-based distributed ledger will keep track of the meat from the farm to the store to ensure easy accountability and traceability

GoMeat's whitepaper was written in 2017 and the goal was always blockchain centric but the company wanted to prove their business case first. After 3 years of learning in the market, GoMeat finally launched its pre-ICO on the 24th of June which sold out 2 weeks early and
