

Senior Population on the Rise and Beltsville's "Elite Home Care Solutions" is Filling Positions to Help the Elderly

BELTSVILLE, MD, UNITED STATES,

September 27, 2021 /

EINPresswire.com/ --

Pew Research reports that 27% of adults ages 60 and older live alone, and as they age, seniors often require safe keeping. Caring for the elderly part of our population requires a lot of caring, compassion, and dedication. It is more than just a job; it is a commitment, and that is the kind of individual Elite Home Care Solutions is looking for.

Founded in 2015 by visionary, Jesse Epps, who through his own life experiences with a family member, concluded that, "one of the main, but basic properties in living is, being of service."

one of the main, but basic properties in living is, being of service.”
