Costa Rica (Cámara Costarricense de Corredores de Bienes Raíces - CCCBR). As a result of the concerted efforts of these associations, the legal document establishes all necessary procedures, so that no later than June 1, 2022, the respective registration requests and other requirements are sent by each association, for the creation of FIABCI-Central America.

Speaking to the delegates attending the opening ceremony of the Latin American Real Estate Congress on September 9 in Ciudad Cayalá, Guatemala City, World President Ribó underlined Latin America's great untapped potential and endless real estate investment opportunities it offers. He also placed great emphasis on the topic of sustainable development throughout his speech, underlining Guatemala's recent positioning towards sustainable construction and how it will allow better resource management in the future, therefore promoting healthier, more inclusive cities.

About FIABCI - FIABCI is the world's most representative non-political business networking organization for all professionals associated with the real estate industry. Representing over 40 professions, from architects to investors, our mission is to provide our members with access and opportunities to exchange knowledge, share best practices, and conduct business with each other. FIABCI is known worldwide - both within the industry and among other world organizations that share our same interests, including the United Nations, with whom we hold special consultative status at the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC). We support the implementation of the United Nations' New Urban Agenda, in particular the Sustainable Development Goal #11: To Make Cities and Human Settlements Inclusive, Safe, Resilient and Sustainable.
