No Plan B Podcast by Jean Fallacara: Discussions with Dr Patrick Porter About the Balance from Earth's electromagnetic frequency

MONTREAL, QC, CANADA, September 28, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr Patrick K Porter inventor of BrainTap was Jean Fallacara's guest in this Episode of the No Plan B Podcast live on Instagram.

This New concept of Podcast claim to be the Bridge between a TV Show, a Podcast, and a Radio Show; Watch Live or on demand, bringing the Best of all Worlds in the broadcasting industry.

During this talk, Dr Porter shares some highlights and his insights on the Schumann Frequency -How does Schumann resonance affect our blood pressure or Brain Waves?

If we were to measure the earth's resonant frequency we would find the average place on earth is 7.83 Hz. This is also known as the Schuman Frequency. When measured with EEG we find the average person's brain is also vibrating at 7.83 Hz. The universe sends 11,000,000 bits of information and frequencies of all kinds per seconds to Your Brain! And you only process around 50 of these, less than 0.00001% of all the information is what handle consciously

Are we out of balance from Earth's electromagnetic frequency”
