"Ou Bel" is a French word which translates to 'You're Beautiful' in English. The main message Fse Yung Treezy is trying to portray with the song is that all women are beautiful. No matter the color of their skin, their size, the shape of their body, or any trivial beauty standard the society has set for women, all of them are beautiful in their own way. "Ou Bel" was released in the month of June this year on Spotify and other major music streaming/downloading platforms. A music video for the song was also released on YouTube on June 29th, 2021. Being in the music industry for quite a while now and gaining enough experience in the field, it's safe to say that Fse Yung Treezy is well on his way to take the world of Hip Hop music by a storm. He's an up-and-coming rapper, singer, performer, writer, recording artist, and actor, all in one. Working on his music from start to end all by himself, Fse Yung Treezy is a complete package. He composed the song "Ou Bel" in hopes of fortifying confidence in women and believing in varying bodies, shapes, and spirits.

Fse Yung Treezy is an extremely unique artist, composing music that has never been heard before. What makes him stand out amongst others is his ability to draw inspiration from his idols while adding his own, unique touch to his music simultaneously. This approach has made him discover his original sound while also following the footsteps of industry legends.
