PETERBOROUGH, ONTARIO, CANADA, October 5, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- PuzzQuest is excited to welcome professional acrylic painter Maureen Bennett to the growing number of artists found on PuzzQuest. PuzzQuest offers unique, high-quality puzzles from original works of art.

PuzzQuest was born out of a love of art, from painting to photography, sculpture, and design. Being surrounded by art adds pleasure to daily life. The company seeks out unknown artists and hidden gems and turns their art into creative puzzles, allowing unknown but passionate creators to share their works of art worldwide.

It's all about not being afraid of colour!”

Maureen Bennett

Maureen Bennett spent 30 years working in quilting, stained glass and fused glass before adding acrylic painting on canvas to her list of talents. She envisioned expanding the principles of glass and fabric design into acrylic on canvas. She developed her own striking and self-taught style of acrylic art paintings that are geometrical, full of angles and include her signature bold clean lines of different colours and brilliant hues that create depth and vibrancy, which are offset with simplified forms and solid shapes.

Bennett has lived and traveled extensively. She paints from memory and the emotional experience rather than photographs. Her landscape paintings have a feeling of peace, solitude and quiet while expressing in colour what cannot be spoken with words.

Two PuzzQuest puzzles feature Bennett's artwork, Music and Snowy Reflection. Both puzzles feature bright, bold colours. Music features a piano, saxophone and music notes, while Snowy Reflection depicts a bold imagining of a snowy mountain and lake.

"It's all about not being afraid of colour," Bennett said.
