

Little Fighters building confidence in the Ring

Rondeau's Kickboxing's builds the young fighters confidence as they step in the ring on Fight Day

JOHNSTON, RI, USA, September 30, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fights were in action on Saturday September 6th at Rondeau's Kickboxing in Johnston, R.I.

Both members from kids and adult classes stepped into the ring, many for the very first time. The enthusiasm and excitement could be felt throughout the room, as fighters put their sparring gear on and warmed up throughout the room. They were all eager to show family and friends what they have learned in classes and sparring sessions. Both members from Rondeau's Kickboxing, Johnston R.I., Wishers Gym, out of Pawtucket R.I. and Kims GIM of Coventry, showed great sportsmanship as they went head to head with their opponents.

Miguel Restrepo, 6 Years Old Stepped into Ring for Two Matches

I was so proud watching my kids in the ring! The confidence level since starting kickboxing here, as increased more than I ever could have imagined”

Andrew

The youngest fighter, Miguel Restrepo who is just 6 years old, stepped in like pro fighter and went back in for 2 more fights. A future champ in the making, his smile was huge as he fought his opponents and looked over at his family for a thumbs up. "Just stepping in the ring these fighters are champs. It takes a lot of courage to get in there. Then add the pressure of family and friends watching you makes the nerves even worse. I am proud of anyone that steps in the ring even if it's only once.", Christina Rondeau stated, Owner of Rondeau's Kickboxing.
