Meridian Health Company Partners with Boise State Football to Generate Community Awareness

MERIDIAN, ID, UNITED STATES, September 30, 2021 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Boise State students, alumni, employees, and fans will gather to celebrate the Homecoming game this Saturday, October 2nd at 1:30 pm MST. Homecoming festivities include a parade, reunions, and, of course, a game day on the blue against the Nevada Wolf Pack.

While thousands of fans fill the Ford Fan Zone area for the third home game of the season, Microbe Formulas team members will be onsite promoting their mission to the local community. At the Microbe booth, they will be giving away swag, including 200 BSU branded t-shirts, as well as product vouchers and company information.

I cannot wait to continue working with BSU to capitalize on our shared visions of making the local community our top priority. This is only the beginning.”
