announced today results of their second quarter operations.

Quarterly revenue increased 131% over the previous quarter, while the number of completed events increased 67%. Additionally, the number of active Food & Beverage Professionals increased 336%. (Personal Sommeliers is privately-held and does not disclose financial details.)

I'm impressed with our Customers, who have endured through these trying times made difficult by the combination of COVID-19 and a severe national shortage of qualified Food & Beverage Professionals."

Robert Smith, President & Master Sommelier

"I'm proud of the tremendous efforts made by our team of Gig Workers during the past quarter to achieve this amazing result. I'm equally impressed with the flexibility shown by our growing list of Customers, who have endured through these trying times made only more difficult by the combination of COVID-19 and a severe national shortage of qualified Food & Beverage Professionals," said Robert Smith, President & Master Sommelier.
