

PLA University Expands Free Job Training Program with New Partners and More Program Dates

Applications are now open for the next PLA University cohort dates: November 1st, December 6th and January 7th.

INDIANAPOLIS, IN, UNITED STATES, October 4, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Phalen Leadership Academies' free job training program, PLA University, is continuing to grow in Indianapolis with new training fields, new program partners, more start dates, and more ways for families to earn more and learn more.

The free workforce development program launched this year to help Indianapolis families create economic parity by providing free job training and job placement in five career tracks including: Health & Life Sciences, Entrepreneurship, Information Technology, Advanced Manufacturing, and Supply Chain Logistics. Through this program, participants can train to become IT support professionals, forklift operators, Certified Nursing Assistants, veterinary assistants, pharmacy technicians, medical billers and coders, medical assistants and more.

Applications are now open for the next PLA University cohort dates: November 1st, December 6th and January 7th.

"We are excited to expand the offerings of PLA University to bring more training options and training partners for PLA families," said PLA University National Executive Director, James Swift. "We have been bolstered by the support of local businesses and institutions such as the Launch Hope Foundation, the Hardon Educational Institute and Penn Foster College. These partners are helping us to lay a strong foundation as we work to help our families secure jobs with
