

Software Answers to Introduce New Web-Based Technology to Clients Around the World

Software Answers Inc. is the leading provider of technology solutions to the corporate housing, serviced apartment and apart-hotel industries worldwide

ORLANDO, FLA., UNITED STATES, October 1, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ --- Software Answers Inc., the leading provider of technology solutions to the corporate housing, serviced apartment and apart-hotel industries worldwide, has announced its new web-based technology platform, Oscar Orion.

"Oscar Orion uses sophisticated technology to create our most innovative, 'industry-leading' product, adding best-in-class interfaces for scheduling and reporting controls targeted specifically for the corporate housing and serviced apartment industries," says Christopher P. Couture, Software Answers' Vice President & Chief Operating Officer.

Couture said Oscar Orion is currently in a beta phase with more than 25 clients, all of whom are expressing great satisfaction with the product and the solutions it provides. One feature drawing rave reviews, he said, is the ability for each user to customize their layout in the system.

Oscar Orion comes equipped with its own completely integrated and proprietary accounting system that is designed specifically for the short-term rental industry and can manage a business from a few units to thousands. Oscar is also capable of posting in multiple currencies, providing ease of use with businesses globally.

"Nomad is extremely excited about the addition of Oscar Orion to Software Answers' reputable product list," says Gavan James, CEO of Nomad Temporary Housing. "Orion is going to push our industry globally into a new age of technology with the use of automation and modernization."
