MILFORD, CT, UNITED STATES, October 6, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Total Mortgage Services, a nationwide mortgage lender who is on track to fund over $3 billion this year, has now partnered with The National Association of Minority Mortgage Bankers of America (NAMMBA).

At its core, NAMMBA aims to improve the lives of minorities and women working in the real estate finance industry via training and relationship building. The partnership with Total Mortgage results in over three hundred mortgage professionals getting focused training, new hire programs, and leadership development, and positions the lender to better support the economic and home financing opportunities of the underserved in their local communities.

Given our own desire to affect positive change for minorities and women in this industry, a partnership with NAMMBA provides a clear path forward.”

CEO*

Scott Penner, CEO, said that “Given our own desire to affect positive change for minorities and women in this industry, a partnership with NAMMBA provides a clear path forward. They have the resources, training, and community in place that will ensure we’re doing everything we can to create an equitable future for our employees and the families we assist.”

“Total Mortgage is stepping up their commitment to workplace culture and diversity by partnering with NAMMBA,” says NAMMBA Founder/CEO Tony Thompson, CMB. “By taking this step they are broadcasting their intent to create a more diverse and inclusive workplace that reflects the communities they serve.”

Total Mortgage joins NAMMBA as the percentage of minority home buyers continues to climb. According to NAMMBA, more than seventy-five percent of first-time home buyers in the next five years will be women, millennials, or people of color.

About NAMMBA:

The National Association of Minority Mortgage Bankers of America is a purpose-driven organization that is dedicated to the inclusion of minorities and women in the mortgage industry who are advocates for sustainable homeownership in local communities. To fulfill its mission, NAMMBA provides programs and initiatives to introduce minorities and women into the mortgage industry, including recruiting, advisory, networking, and training for enterprises and individual professionals.
