Background of Michael Diaz Attorney at Law

Michael Diaz has worked in the field of law for more than 14 years. Whether they've been accused of a crime or need assistance with a family law matter such as divorce, adoption, or child custody, among other things, this law firm is willing to go above and beyond for its clients.

It's important to protect having the freedom to take care of your family and move onto the next stage of your life, and that's where a family lawyer and their staff comes in. You don't want to leave it up to chance when it comes to your case if you've been accused of a crime. Also, you need to make sure you have a competent attorney if you plan on filing for a divorce and there are contested matters between you and your spouse.

Custom Treatment and Services from Michael Diaz Attorney

You'll be pleased to know that Michael Diaz Attorney and others at his law firm work hard to give personalized care to each legal case. They're far from all being the same so they need a custom approach in order to have a fighting chance at a successful resolution. This means that someone on the team will discuss the details by interviewing a new client right away. This will ensure what steps need to be taken next and what the client will have to gather to allow the team to build a case.

A Track Record

Michael Diaz has taken on hundreds of clients to assist their family law matters. He encourages working things out in an agreement if possible, to help the client avoiding having to go to court for a prolonged and more expensive process. Not all lawyers make it a point to encourage mediation to this extent.

Michael Diaz Attorney has been a member of the Texas State Bar since 2006. He's a member of the Texas Bar College, an honorary society of attorneys in Texas. He also is part of the Collin County Criminal Defense Association and the Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association. His dedication to the field of law is evident by the recognition he's received in the professional realm.

Though he does have trained staff at the law firm, Michael Diaz Jr. is an Attorney does handle all cases himself so you get to work with Michael himself. This ensures that there will be a high standard of attention and care for every criminal and family law case that the firm takes on.
