One of the nation's leading chic, eco-conscious, and affordable lifestyle brands is slated to release a new collection of sunglasses during the holidays.

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, October 4, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Representatives with Carmen Sol today announced that it is launching a collection of sunglasses starting with the holiday 2021.

"We are very excited about this," said Sebastiano Di Bari, president and spokesperson for Carmen Sol. And sunglasses are definitely an important product in our opinion"

Designed in New York and made in Italy, Carmen Sol is a resort-inspired, affordable luxury brand with an eco-chic point of view. All accessories in the collection are made of recyclable, rose-scented jelly material in a variety of vivid hues.

Di Bari explained that Carmel Sol, which is a member of the National Accessories Association, and the National Shoes Association, will launch a new collection of sunglasses that are 100 percent made in Italy, made with recyclable material, and is inspired to the colorful jelly lines.
