William Carlos Williams Center featured a staged reading of AMERICAN PHANTASMAGORIA with Ellen Lanese, Anthony Spaldo, Eric Hafen and Don Zirilli in Rutherford, NJ. Their performances echoed our work on SACCO & VANZETTI, THE WOMEN OF TRACHIS, and FRANKINCENSE.

FANGS TO RICHES offers a great many indictments of American culture... with gusto... it would have a strong impact....be an ideal project...for an audience.

You're a very talented man.

By so doing we honored the plays written by Williams for The Living Theatre. Members of the audience included Sanjay Agnihotri who published GLORIA V in Local Knowledge, Nancy Ralph, and wine professor Anthony Verdoni. They travelled far and wide from Neptune, Manhattan and Morristown to Rutherford. We thank them all. On the web the writing of Daniel P Quinn is also published on Substack and Word Press on a regular basis which also showcases his blogs on The New York Times.
