with his wife and their friends. Only recently has Varner found his feet on the golf course, quickly coming to love the sport in the process.

Accordingly, the IT professional continues to embrace his newly discovered love of golf alongside friends and fellow members of the prestigious country club whenever possible.

Marsh Creek Country Club promises a unique, dynamic, and diverse experience for its members. Showcasing the very best that St. Augustine and surrounding areas have to offer, members enjoy access to a choice of beautiful championship golf courses. A robust social calendar further promises more incredible experiences, all tailored toward building lasting friendships.

Charles Varner marks five years with leading software team

Florida-based new golfer Charles Varner recently marked five years at his current place of work. A veteran of the world of IT, now in the field for almost 20 years, his office is around 30 miles south of his home in St. Augustine.

The software team of which Varner is a part was originally established around a decade ago with the goal of creating a group of experts and consultants committed to exceptional client outcomes. Ten years on, it remains comprised of a growing roster of specialists, collectively renowned for their program management and project execution skills.

When he's not working or playing golf at Anastasia Island's Marsh Creek Country Club, St. Augustine resident Charles Varner enjoys nothing more than spending time with his beloved dogs.

Varner is, he says, a lifelong dog lover. The IT professional and his wife, Candice, currently have two dogs, Allie and Coco. The couple revel in taking long walks with the pair, often joined by friends, family, and other dog lovers from in and around St. Augustine.
