

Global Hostels Market Trends, Strategies, And Opportunities In The Hostels Market 2021-2030

The Business Research Company's Hostels Global Market Report 2021: COVID-19 Growth And Change

LONDON, GREATER LONDON, UK, October 5, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- According to the new market research report 'Hostels Global Market Report 2021: COVID-19 Growth And Change' published by The Business Research Company, the hostels market size is expected grow from $4.37 billion in 2020 to $5.2 billion in 2021 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 19%. The growth is mainly due to the companies resuming their operations and adapting to the new normal while recovering from the COVID-19 impact, which had earlier led to restrictive containment measures involving social distancing, remote working, and the closure of commercial activities that resulted in operational challenges. The market is expected to reach $5.99 billion in 2025 at a CAGR of 4%. The increased spending by millennials (aged 18-35) to travel is a key factor driving the growth of the hostels market.

The hostels market consists of sales of hostels and related services. A hostel can be described as a kind of budget-friendly shared accommodation that has a common area. Hostels typically have dorm-style rooms for travelers, but private rooms and hotel-like facilities are also available nowadays. Hostels prefer to concentrate on building a sociable atmosphere and are much less costly than a hotel.

Trends In The Global Hostels Market

The introduction of hybrid hostels is a key trend in the hostels market. To satisfy young urban professional travelers, hybrid hostels combine the affordability and sociability of dorm-accommodation with the upscale facilities of traditional hotels. For instance, Stay Hybrid Hostel is centrally located in Thessaloniki, near the Ladadika and Valaoritou areas. Every room at Stay
