

EVERLINE ANNOUNCES ACQUISITION OF ARDUA STRATEGIES, EXPANDS INTO OPERATIONAL SECURITY

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, October 5, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- EverLine, a leading provider of energy compliance, technical and security solutions, announced today that it has completed the acquisition of Ardua Strategies, Inc ("Ardua"). EverLine is a subsidiary of LineStar Integrity Services, LLC, a portfolio company of First Reserve, a leading global private equity investment firm exclusively focused on energy.

The acquisition of Ardua expands EverLine's technical stack to include a robust operational security offering. Annie McIntyre, Ardua's founder and President, will serve as EverLine's Director of Operational Security. She will lead a team of security experts dedicated to increasing the safety, reliability, and business continuity of customer assets through tested cyber, physical, and human security management.

Louis Krannich, President of EverLine, said, "Annie and her team come to EverLine with decades of experience protecting critical infrastructure in the government, military, and private sectors, including having authored portions of industry security standards and best practices. This combination allows EverLine to apply Ardua's deep expertise to our internal programs and to our customers' assets while also deploying our SCADA/IT resources to execute security system design and maintenance – a truly unique industry offering."

McIntyre added, "Security is essential to ensuring the most critical operations remain stable and safe, and we are in a time when security is a significant concern for many. We are pleased to have a role in EverLine's distinctive approach that provides inherent security to industry in a seamless and comprehensive way."

Financial details of the transactions were not disclosed.
