

Alabama's Adult Education Program Tellis Educational Services Celebrates a Successful First Year

In the past 12 months, the program has graduated more than 100 students, some of them currently heading to college using their knowledge to improve their career

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA, UNITED STATES, October 6, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Tellis Educational Services is happy to announce that its Alabama Adult Education Program is celebrating the first year of successful operation. The program has achieved tremendous success, helping many students achieve their goals and giving them a fresh opportunity to further their education and improve their lives.

In the past 12 months, the program has witnessed over 100 students graduate. In the last term alone, 45 students graduated, with 40 students officially walking during graduation. Out of the 45, about 15 students made honors, while 6 have already started community college classes in various fields, including culinary, healthcare, etc.

Tellis Educational Services is committed to developing and promoting quality education, especially among adults who have been disenfranchised and now want to pursue academic careers. Their programs are very flexible, and they open doors for an opportunity for people to take the courses, write exams, and receive their certification. As a result, many people who have been through their program have used their qualifications to get promotions in their workplace, get salary increments, and moved on to college to obtain their bachelor's degrees. Some have also acquired education on vocational skills and trades, helping them become independent entrepreneurs. In addition, Tellis Educational Services offers a very affordable education because
