The InvoTech Uniform System manages all aspects of wardrobe operations. It monitors employee use and delivers savings in labor costs and a reduction in on-going purchases. The newest Omni Hotel in Boston at the Seaport District opened this month with InvoTech's RFID Uniform System already in place to maximize cost-savings immediately. InvoTech has extensive experience in implementing systems for new properties.

The InvoTech solution includes on-site installation and training services to ensure all items are issued to employees and recorded properly before the grand opening. Omni Hotels' properties: Omni Dallas, Omni Grove Park Inn, Omni Montelucia Scottsdale Resort & Spa and Omni Oklahoma City also opened using InvoTech Uniform Systems to manage wardrobe operations.

"By installing the Uniform System, the Omni Hotel in Boston at the Seaport automates its uniform operations. InvoTech customers see an ROI in the first year by eliminating losses and reducing purchases. The InvoTech RFID technology instantly provides additional savings through increased efficiency. The system manages the entire uniform inventory and the lifecycle of each individual garment from purchasing through daily use to final discard”, said Oswald Lares, Director of Sales & Marketing at InvoTech Systems, Inc.

InvoTech has over 700 of satisfied clients worldwide in more than 36 countries, including hotels, resorts, casinos, theme parks, stadiums, arenas, convention centers, medical centers, cleanrooms, and laundries.
