

Weiss Memorial Hospital Partners with Chicago House Players to Preview State of the Art Robotic-Assisted Surgical Unit

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, October 7, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Weiss Memorial Hospital's Chicago Center for Orthopedics and Robotic-Assisted Surgery will host an open house this Thursday, October 7th, where guests and the media will have an opportunity to get an exclusive inside look into the state-of-the-art Orthopedics Unit opening later this season.

The event will include interactive demonstrations of the advanced robotic-assisted technology from Weiss' renowned Orthopedic Surgeons including Thomas McNally, MD and Medical Director of the Spine Center for the Orthopedic Unit.

The event will also spotlight Weiss' recent partnership with the Chicago House Athletic Club. Dr. Sebastian Ko, orthopedic surgeon and sports medicine specialist, was recently announced as the soccer club's Lead Team Physician. Along with Dr. Ko, guests will have an opportunity to meet Chicago House players Drew Connor and Stefan Mijatovic, as well as head coach C.J. Brown, and the club's president and CEO, Peter Wilt.
