Market Dynamics –

Rapid introduction of technically advanced Virtual Reality (VR) devices, growing number of VR gamers and increasing requirement for 360 videos in media and entertainment sector are some of the major driving factors behind the growth of 360-degree camera market. Moreover, growing awareness about the need for safety and security at public places and inexpensive prices of 360-degree cameras are the major drivers for the growth of the 360-degree camera market. However, the limitations of software and hardware and lack of proper compatibility with other devices are likely to restrain the growth of the market.
