

Carr, Riggs & Ingram (CRI) Prepares to Host Two Year-End Planning Webinars

Sessions to Address Tax Changes for Both Businesses and Individuals

ENTEPRISE, ALABAMA, UNITED STATES, October 11, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Carr, Riggs & Ingram (CRI) has announced their annual dual-session webinar event that addresses Year-End Tax Planning for the 2021 tax year. These free live events will offer insights into navigating evolving pandemic-related tax law changes and evaluating tax planning strategies. The virtual sessions for both individuals and businesses will take place on Tuesday, November 9, 2021, at 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. (CT), respectively.

The two events will focus on providing guidance for taxpayers looking to reduce penalties, maximize available funds, and make the most of federal aid and deductions. Attendees will be able to pinpoint areas where tax law changes may impact their business or personal tax circumstances and identify planning techniques that may help potentially reduce income tax. Eligible attendees of the live sessions will receive 1.0 hour of C.P.E. for each webinar that is attended. Please click here to register for this virtual event.
