great event that gets you into the Christmas season,” said Sharon McCurdy, Vice President of the Bolivar Peninsula Chamber.

As part of the holiday festivities, homes and businesses will be judged on their Christmas Lighting displays. From lighted candy canes to nativity scenes, parade and lighting contest entries go all out to show their Christmas spirit. Judges will be determining the winners of the lighting contest on Friday night before the parade. Trophies will be awarded to both the top three parade entries and lighting entries.

Christmas time goes big on the Bolivar Peninsula.

After the parade, a visit with Santa Claus is scheduled. Children will be able to get their picture with the jolly guest and will be given a gift. In addition, hot dogs, cookies, and drinks will be served by the Lighthouse Krewe.

The Bolivar Peninsula is a great place to spend the holidays. Contact the Bolivar Peninsula Chamber of Commerce for more information on the parade, lighting contest, or visiting Bolivar Peninsula at 409-684-5940. See you at the parade!
