

National Veteran Business Development Council announces Jason Trimiew from Facebook for the Fireside Chat

NVBDC welcomes our Fireside Chat speaker, Jason Trimiew, Director, Global Supplier Diversity, Facebook, at the 6th Annual National Matchmaking Conference.

DETROIT, MI, UNITED STATES, October 8, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jason Trimiew, for 20 years, has worked at the intersection of marketplace and social impact in International Microfinance, Community and Economic Development, and Venture Philanthropy.

November 3-4, the largest gathering of certified veteran owned businesses in one location.

In 2016, Jason joined Facebook (Menlo Park, California) to launch and lead the company's Supplier Diversity Program and create more opportunities for diverse-owned firms to do business with Facebook, in addition to the people and communities with whom Facebook connects. To date, Facebook has spent more than $1.7 billion, cumulatively, with U.S. companies certified as minority, women, veteran, LGBTQ, or disability-owned in categories spanning Creative Services, Network Infrastructure, Facilities Management, and much more.

NVBDC is proud of the supplier diversity opportunities Facebook has made available through Jason's efforts and we are anxious for everyone to hear about, and learn from, him during his Fireside Chat.”
