Through hosting themed hospital parties on a regular basis, Holiday Heroes is able to take a child's mind away from the stress and anxiety of being in a hospital with a day of play, thereby promoting better recovery from their illness. Holiday Heroes delivers a little fun with a big impact – making every day a holiday through play. Holiday Heroes provides pediatric hospital patients a day of play to include items such as craft boxes, catered meals, specialty merchandise, gift cards and costumed characters.

"I have long admired the incredible work that the Holiday Heroes Foundation does, not only in children's hospitals throughout Chicagoland but in the Greater Los Angeles area as well," says Bruce. "Ensuring that these kids will experience some joy and normalcy this holiday season through the foundation's in-person and virtual programs is very important to me. I was glad to help sponsor last night's gala event."
