There is a significant growth in the e-commerce industry on account of the increasing internet connectivity and rising sales of smartphones, especially in emerging economies. This represents one of the key factors offering lucrative growth opportunities to leading players operating in the logistics market. Besides this, these players are providing sustainable transport solutions due to rising environmental concerns and stringent government regulations in numerous countries. They are also focusing on the optimal usage of advanced technologies, such as artificial intelligence (AI), the Internet of Things (IoT), driverless vehicles and drone delivery. Furthermore, logistics companies are engaging in mergers and acquisitions (M&A) activities to expand their existing consumer base. For instance, United Parcel Services, Inc. acquired the UK-based FreightEx shipping LLC and DSV Air & Sea Inc. has announced the acquisition of Agility Global Integrated Logistics (GIL).
