On this occasion, we would like to express our utmost thanks to our customers and team for making 2021 a season to remember.

We are thankful for the vote of confidence, and we already have our minds set on next season when our guests will witness even more fine dining experiences and culinary surprises.”

Mr. Dionysis Alibertis

A very special thanks goes out to our Consulting Chef, the amazing Gikas Xenakis, who masterfully designed our menus for the third year in a row.

His relentless creativity is of paramount importance for our success, and we are sincerely looking forward to having him again in our family.

On the same note, we could not but wholeheartedly bow to our head chef extraordinaire, Konstantinos Votanos, his team, and our entire staff for their unwavering efforts to consistently maintain our high-quality standards and impeccable customer experience.

Our vision and philosophy come to fruition thanks to their commitment and dedication.

Last but certainly not least, we would like to thank our customers for the trust they have been showing us since we opened our doors in 2017.

They are the driving force behind our passion, and we consider them all as friends we will happily meet in person again next year.

Mr. Dionysis Alibertis, Barozzi's owner, said: "Despite the difficult circumstances brought by the pandemic, this season has been a tremendous success. We are thankful for the vote of confidence, and we already have our minds set on next season when our guests will witness even more fine dining experiences and culinary surprises. We will be waiting for each and every one of you in 2022, with our select menus, degustation options, and wine pairings."
