Services Market to Set New Growth
Cycle)

The IVF services market in France is characterized by important factors such as higher success rate, low costs of IVF services as compared to the UK and the U.S., and adoption of IVF child by homosexual couples. In addition, the social security policy on assisted fertility treatments in France is currently recognized as more liberal than the U.S. or the UK. Lower rates of fertility and married homosexuals adoption of IVF babies drive the market growth.
