

Ascento Capital Advises StreamWeaver, a Leading AlOps Company, in Its Sale to BMC

Tech M&A - AlOps

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, October 29, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ --Ascento Capital represented StreamWeaver Technologies, Inc., a leading AI operations (AIOps) company, in its sale to BMC Software, Inc. BMC is a global leader in software solutions for the Autonomous Digital Enterprise.

StreamWeaver enhances BMC's AlOps capabilities with a broad set of out-of-the-box data integrations built on a complementary, modern microservices-based architecture that allows customers to achieve better incident and risk predictions, improved automated remediation, and increased support for DevOps and ServiceOps, which is the unique outcome that results from applying Al to service and operations management.

Together, BMC and StreamWeaver will allow customers to apply BMC's advanced AI/ML analytics capabilities to rich data from the various tools and technologies that may exist in their IT environments, seamlessly integrated into the BMC Helix platform.
