

EdTech Company Announces Buy One Give One Tutor Program to Help Students in Need

EdTech Start-up commits to educational equity with launch of 'Buy One Give One' initiative. Families can now buy a tutoring session for a child in need.

WESTPORT, CONNECTICUT, UNITED STATES, October 14, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Teacher Marketplace \(TTM\), an EdTech company based in Westport, CT, announces a special program dedicated to educational equity and accessibility for all students across the nation.

TTM has launched a new program called 'Buy One Give One.' Now families have an opportunity to buy a tutoring session for a child in need, or donate an amount of their choice to fund a tutor for a child who cannot afford one.

This is one of many initiatives where TTM is able to further their commitment to educational equity and access. TTM believes that individualized, high-quality educational experiences should be available to all children, regardless of a family's income.

With the Delta variant driving uncertainty with quarantines and school closures, parents and teachers alike want to keep their children on track. One way to do this is by allowing them to learn in a consistent, safe and secure environment, without compromising the quality of the education they are receiving. Today's learning challenges presented by Covid-19 are
