ABOUT TEDI BRUNETTI: To say Tedi Brunetti has "seen everything" during her career in music would be a vast understatement. The drummer, singer and songwriter from Pittsburgh grew up listening to songs on a transistor radio while banging away on a hamper and old hat boxes. Describing herself as a "sober Janis Joplin meeting Steely Dan in Memphis," it wasn't long before Tedi was touring with New York City's The Impalas, Toronto's infamous B-Girls and performing with Isis' Carol MacDonald before finally deciding to launch her solo career.
