I appreciate all of the support, and I'm happy to be able to make all of my music - old and new - available everywhere, thanks to my new partnership with Beatroot.”

Fresh's fans will finally have access to his quintessential catalog in a digital format and will also be treated to never-before-heard content. Three notable bonus tracks will be included with his first album, "Oh, My God!" - most excitingly, a new, live version of "La Di Da Di," performed in 1984 with Slick Rick, recorded more than a year before the original album version was released. To date, "La Di Da Di" is one of the top five most sampled songs of all time - not just in hip-hop, but across all music genres. It was originally released in 1985 as the B-side to "The Show," another definitive hip-hop treasure which achieved massive commercial success and will now be available in its original 12" version.

Fresh's second album, "The World's Greatest Entertainer," will now feature the song "Summertime," previously only released as a single. The video for this track includes cameos from a then-unknown Jennifer Lopez and Sean "Diddy" Combs. His third album, "Play," will include two previously unreleased songs, "Rock Your Body Body" and "JD Walker," as well as two newly remixed versions of his street anthem "I-lght."

Fresh and his original DJ and co-founding member of the Get Fresh Crew, Barry B, personally remastered and remixed all three of the classic albums now offered, and over the next several months, Fresh and Beatroot will unveil several previously unavailable 12" mixes, including "Let Me Clear My Throat," featuring DJ Kool and the recently departed Biz Markie.

Doug E. Fresh is globally heralded as the Original Human Beatbox. His career has spanned multiple decades, amassed countless awards, yielded thousands of sample uses from artists like Beyoncé, LL Cool J, Will Smith, Snoop Dogg, and Mariah Carey, prompting his peers to dub him "The World's Greatest Entertainer." For more than 20 straight years, he has averaged 200 mesmerizing live performances per year – a rare feat for an artist of any age.

"We couldn't be happier to welcome Doug E. Fresh into the Beatroot and MIME families," said Tony D. Alexander, President and Managing Director of Made in Memphis Entertainment (MIME). "Doug's music, both the timeless classics and his new releases, deserve to be heard around the world. We are excited to bring these albums and mixes to streaming for the first time, where they can be introduced to a whole new generation. We look forward to being a part of the continuing career of one of the greatest hip-hop artists of all time."

"I appreciate all of the support, and I'm happy to be able to make all of my music - old and new - available everywhere, thanks to my new partnership with Beatroot," added Doug E. Fresh. "This is an exciting new chapter in my career, and I'm looking forward to all that is to come."
