NEW YORK , NY, UNITED STATES, October 18, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lotus (Wu, Hui-Lien) the well-known curator and chairman of WCECA (World Culture Exchange and Commerce Association) is arranging a themed event, "Save The Planet". The theme goes straight to our souls. This event has been actively participated by local artists in Taiwan and has also received kind support from international art groups and internationally renowned artists. Ms. Wu has contributed a lot of energy and precious time to this extraordinary event. She has been doing charity and public welfare to promote environmental protection. She believes that all the efforts are worthwhile because it raises people's awareness of caring for the earth.

At the same time, this event has received strong support from the internationally reputable Vision Art Media (USA).

Vision Art Media is a media company based in New York City which organizes art and culture events. They have connections with many galleries, organizations, and museums. Due to their professionalism and commitment to the arts and cultures, Vision Art Media is the award-winning international art event organizer. They arrange exhibitions to display artwork and promote artists using their strong network, both domestically and internationally. Their expectation is for the artists to all to have a good reputation after the shows.

Vision Art Media enjoys a high international reputation and is known as a leader in the forefront of culture and art. They will continue to provide quality services, maintain credibility, and create a win-win situation. With their strong influence on the international stage, they focus on promoting the long-term development of each artist's creativity. Let art make our world more harmonious and more beautiful.

In the 21st century, opportunities and challenges, hope and difficulties coexist. While it creates a brilliant performance for us, it also brings us deliberation like environmental issues.

The earth is the mother of all beings. It is unique, selflessly offering us her all. We, human beings, have the responsibility and obligation to cherish it and prevent it from being polluted or destroyed. It's necessary to keep it clean and green. Without it, we cannot survive and have no place to live. We should, and must, protect it like caring for our families.
