

"Close to Monday" X BIICLA reloads the "Guns"

Close to Monday presents a new remix performed by a bright DJ Biicla whose debut immediately received critical praise from industry taste-makers like Billboard

BERLIN, GERMANY, October 18, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Emerging European Electronic Music band "Close To Monday" has been breezing through career milestones at breakneck speed since their inception as a collective in 2020. Immediately after the release of the band's brand new album in April 2021, the track "Guns" music video became the winner in the category Best Dance Music Video at international festivals in London and Rome!

And now "Close to Monday" presents the remix of the track "Guns" performed by a bright Russian DJ and multiinstrumentalist Biicla, who has already noted great collaborations with Emmitt Fenn, Louis the Child, Zead Deads!

Close to Monday - GUNS (Biicla Remix)

It seems that everything that happens in the world is terribly oppressive, so many deaths, so much injustice; it felt like we needed God's hand, but a tough God who would come and put an end to evil.”

Biicla colored the "Close to Monday"s track "Guns" with his signature sound that combines the hard-hitting elements of future bass with grungy synths, hip-hop grooves, and experimental nuances. His look is a refreshing take on the original theme of the track, which leads to a decidedly alternative listening experience. And this amazing track transformation is not accidental. Biicla has established himself in the music industry as an original producer creating uniquely-styled tracks combining unusual blends of electronics, vintage samples and live vocals. Not by chance, his debut immediately received critical praise from the industry taste-makers like Billboard.

For "Close to Monday", this remix has become a wonderful continuation of a series of collaborations with bright representatives of the electronic music scene, being a confirmation of the interest in the band's music from the industry fellows. The alliance with the famous German producer Ron Flatter in the middle of summer has resulted in the release of the band's first remix. And in early autumn, "Close to Monday" released an incendiary remix of the track "Time" performed by the established techno and house master Dirty Doering.
