The global market is primarily driven by the rising trend of fine dining to establish a good relationship with clients as a part of business development. Moreover, significant growth in the hospitality sector is creating a positive outlook for the market. Along with this, digitization of various contract catering processes is providing an impetus to the market growth as it offers numerous services, such as pre-booking and online menu options, to the consumers for enhanced convenience. Other factors, including rapid urbanization and the increasing popularity of weekend parties across the corporate sector, are also contributing to the market growth. Looking forward, IMARC Group expects the global contract catering market to grow at a CAGR of around 6% during the forecast period (2021-2026).
