

Anavii Market & OP Innovates Team Up To Create 'Anavii Relief' Capsules Powered by Naturia Plus™ Delivery System

Anavii Relief, a potent full-spectrum hemp extract capsule that works fast, uses Naturia+ to enhance bioavailability.

LEXINGTON, KY, USA, October 19, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Anavii Market, a curated online marketplace for CBD and hemp products, uses OP Innovates' patent-pending Naturia+ technology for their house-branded capsules.

Anavii Relief capsules offer a efficacious full-spectrum blend of CBD and CBDA, along with other trace cannabinoids, combined with the Naturia+ delivery system. Altogether, this creates a potent and fast-acting capsule.

“Supplements created with Naturia+ are better, faster, stronger and last longer,” explained Keith Butler, CEO in charge of formulations at OP Innovates.

We love that Naturia+ is based in nature, yet backed by science showing it works better.”

Jason Amatucci, Anavii Market

Naturia+ takes advantage of a unique evolutionary pathway to deliver cannabinoid extracts to the bloodstream more efficiently. This dramatically increases the bioavailability of supplements like Anavii Relief.

“Best of all, this approach is completely natural, without requiring some of the added chemicals other companies use to improve the bioavailability of their products,” Butler continued.

These weren't the only features which appealed to Anavii Market, however, as cofounder Jason Amatucci explained.

“When the time came to launch our own brand of supplements, we wanted to create a product that was both pure and powerful, while also sustainably made,” he said. “OP Innovates delivered a custom formula that fits our needs perfectly.”

OP Innovates creates Anavii Relief in their state-of-the-art facility powered in part by renewable geothermal energy. This factory meets some of the strictest possible national safety standards. OP Innovates even works to source raw materials within 100 miles of their factory, further cutting carbon costs.

This summer, OP Innovates launched a scientific study that they hope will document the improved bioavailability of their system. The study compared the absorption rates of Naturia+ versus traditional CBD supplements that use MCT oil for delivery. The company expects to announce positive results soon.

“We love that Naturia+ is based in nature, yet backed by science showing it works better,” Amatucci added. “That creates a supplement our customers can trust.”

Each Anavii Relief capsule contains 20mg of combined CBD & CBDA. The supplement retails for $49.95 per 30 capsules and $89.95 for 60 capsules.
