Alcoholic Beverages Market

In recent years, the top alcoholic beverages manufacturers worldwide have been introducing premium, and super-premium alcohol variants as these beverages are widely consumed as rejuvenating and recreational drinks. Heineken Holding N.V. represents one of the leading developers and marketers of more than 300 local, regional, international, and specialty beers and ciders brands.

Nowadays, with the rising environmental concerns, manufacturers are also emphasizing biodegradable packaging solutions and sustainable methods in the production processes. For instance, Carlsberg, a Denmark-based leading brewery group, aims to attain zero carbon emissions at its breweries by 2030. Furthermore, several beverage companies are expanding their existing product portfolio to attract a wider consumer base. For example, Anheuser-Busch InBev NV, a Belgium-based company, owns more than 400 beer brands, including Corona, Budweiser, Stella Artois, Beck's, Leffe, Hoegaarden, Bud Light, Sedrin, Klinskoye, Sibirskaya Korona, Chernigovske, Cass and Jupiler. These product innovations and advancements in production technology are expected to provide a favorable market outlook in the upcoming years.
