Recent Inns of Colorado blog posts include bed and breakfast getaway packages and discounts, B&B cookbook order information, and Colorado wine country tours, among others. In addition to the comprehensive www.InnsofColorado.org website, the "Colorado B&B Travel Inn-Sights" Blog provides current tidbits of travel information that can be helpful in planning a B&B stay.

In the article "How to Use Travel Blogs to Plan Your Trip - Supplement your trip planning by reading travel blogs that can offer unbiased opinions, photo galleries, and detailed information" on Frommers.com, writer Chris Gray Faust discusses the benefits of using blogs in vacation planning.

Faust writes, "If you're looking to add some diversity to your travel surfing, here are some ways that blogs can help with trip planning: Read more details and see more photos. With no space limits, blogs have room to provide practical tips and photos that might not fit in a typical newspaper or magazine travel story."

BBIC encourages guests to use blog posts and newsletter subscriptions, in addition to standard website information, when compiling, researching and planning trip itineraries. The benefit of reviewing website page blogs like the BBIC association's "Colorado B&B Travel Inn-Sights" is that a blog can offer more current, detailed and unique information that may not be found elsewhere on standard websites.
