

Master's Ranch Founder Retires

Pastor David Bosley Says Farewell

MYRTLE,, MISSOURI, USA, October 21, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Master's Ranch Christian Academy (MRCA), a residential care facility that changes lives for adolescent men and women domiciled in Myrtle, MO, is sad to announce the retirement of its founder, Pastor David Bosley.

In 2007, Pastor David Bosley and his wife Tresa began their work with at-risk kids. Since that time, Master's Ranch has grown and is now a recognized leader in the world of Christ-centered adolescent care. It is also a premier school and ministry serving struggling teens from around the world. Master's Ranch supports those with ADHD, ADD, RAD, anger and behavioral issues, and other self-destructive tendencies. The young men trusted to the care of Master's Ranch are restored and healed while gaining vocational skills, education, resources, friendships, and faith-based counseling. In an outdoor, ranch-style, working-farm environment, they learn the value of hard work, personal responsibility, achievement, discipline, and respect.

Pastor David and his wife started Master's Ranch with a single home. Their work and service quickly grew and developed into a dormitory serving multiple children. Then the work expanded into a school. Soon a farm was added. Within a few years, a junior-high campus was added. Now, Master's Ranch Christian Academy has a junior-high boys residential program, a senior-high boys residential program, and a facility that serves at-risk teenage young ladies. The goals are that all their residents will discover a fresh start and focus, new direction and purpose, hope, confidence, self-esteem, emotional attachments, and real-world skills. All this and more equip residents for a successful path and return to life.
