

Jeptha Creed Distillery Releases Bottled-In-Bond Rye Bourbon

On their 5th anniversary, this November 11th, Jeptha Creed Distillery is releasing their first Estate Grown Bloody Butcher Corn Bottled-In-Bond Rye Bourbon.

SHELBYVILLE, KENTUCKY, UNITED STATES, October 26, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- This rye bourbon has been barrel-aged at least 4 years, in a single season, in a bonded barrel barn, and is proofed right at 50% ABV. It has a rye mash bill of Bloody Butcher corn, malted rye, and malted barley. All of the Bloody Butcher corn was estate grown, on their own farmland within 10 miles of the distillery. This rye bourbon will be available for purchase in the distillery gift shop, online to KY, ND, AK, D.C., and in select stores throughout KY and IN on November 11th, 2021. It will be available in select stores throughout IL, TN, and MO in March 2022.
