

Author and Chef Jamie Oliver Talks with Actress Kate Hudson about new cookbook "Together"

Oliver's new book focuses on the simple pleasures of eating with family and friends after a long time spent apart

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, October 28, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bestselling author, restaurateur, television personality and food activist Jaime Oliver talks to award-winning actress and bestselling author Kate Hudson about his newest cookbook "Together: Memorable Meals Made Easy." This in-person event is hosted by Live Talks Los Angeles on Monday, November 1, 2021, 8pm at the Aratani Theatre in downtown Los Angeles. The event will also be presented virtually Wednesday, November 3, 2021 at 6pmPT/9pmET. All tickets include a signed copy of "Together." More information can be found at Live Talks Los Angeles.

The aim of "Together" is to minimize the time spent in the kitchen and to maximize the opportunity for the home chef to mingle with guests. Oliver has gathered 130 recipes with meal plans in every chapter that take the stress out of cooking and show how to focus on comfort, celebration, creating new memories and above all, sharing fantastic food.

"What we've been through, collectively," says Oliver, "is very unusual, and I think a lot of us have realized that perhaps we took some of life's simple pleasures for granted. Being together is precious... And the joyful, amazing thing about food is that it can be anything you want it to be. It can nourish, sustain, help to heal, be fast or convenient, comforting, fun, surprising, or an adventure. But maybe, in its simplest form, it works as an excuse to bring the people you love together."

Talking to Oliver will be Kate Hudson, whose breakout role as "band aid" Penny Lane in "Almost Famous" became a career-making performance and earned her a Golden Globe Award and an
