Global Core Banking Solutions Market: Dynamics

Rising focus of banks on better record keeping, customer interaction, remote data retrievals, and seamless workflow is a key factor driving growth of the global core banking solutions market. Development of new centralized services have enabled bank employees to automate the front-end and back-end of the banking process. CBS enables easy withdrawal and deposit facilities for bank customers. Enhanced application programming interfaces (APIs), improved person-to-person payment portals, and availability of pay-as-you-use servers and cloud-based computing services have remarkably restrained demand for on-premises core banking solutions. Additionally, high costs associated with software update and maintenance and lack of technical
