RESTON, VA, USA, October 26, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Intelligent Waves (IW), a cutting-edge IT systems integrator delivering high-impact transformational IT solutions to the Government's most mission-critical challenges, is proud to announce it has been named Cybersecurity Government Contractor of the Year in the 3rd Annual Northern Virginia Technology Council's (NVTC) 2021 Capital Cyber Awards.

Intelligent Waves wins the 2021 NVTC Capital Cyber Awards for Cybersecurity Government Contractor of the Year

Throughout this year, Intelligent Waves launched several innovative and disruptive cybersecurity solutions serving the Defense and IC Communities, including GRAYPATH, an ultra-secure next-generation VPN, and Phantom, a high-security Cyber-Defense solution. IW's Chief Strategy Officer, John Hammes, remarked that "Intelligent Waves continues to innovate in order to deliver more effective security for mission-critical organizations. We are proud to be recognized by NVTC for our work in this area." The NVTC Capital Cyber Award winners demonstrate dedication, vision, innovation, and an ability to design mission-critical security solutions to thwart cyber-attacks. These awards highlight and salute their accomplishments and contributions in protecting our nation's critical infrastructure.

Intelligent Waves continues to innovate in order to deliver more effective security for mission-critical organizations. We are proud to be recognized by NVTC for our work in this area.”

John Hammes, Chief Strategy Officer for Intelligent Waves (IW)
