One of the member inns which continues to receive high marks from travelers is The Gable House, a Victorian bed and breakfast located in the heart of Durango, CO.

The Gable House is a true Bed & Breakfast inn located in Colorado

The Gable House Bed and Breakfast is the perfect inn for your vacation in scenic Durango, Colorado and the picturesque tree-lined neighborhood are all part of the charm of a true Bed & Breakfast.”

Heather, Owner-Innkeeper

This 1892 Queen Anne Victorian mansion is located on a tree-lined street and is listed on the National and State Historic Registry. The wrap-around front porch offers views of the mountains around Durango, a well-manicured lawn, gardens and fountain. A full, hot breakfast is served every morning with ingredients like farm fresh eggs, breakfast meats, fruit, yogurt, breads, and pastries. The breakfast theme alternates between savory and sweet. In addition to receiving the highest traveler tested 5-mark rating, the inn also received the 2021 Travelers' Choice Award from Tripadvisor. On the Gable House website, visitors will have access to current health and safety information and online reservations. According to a recent Tripadvisor guest reviewer named as "Just The Best", goes on to write, "In a word, the whole experience at The Gable House was "wonderful." Heather is a world-class hostess. The house itself is picturesque and immaculately clean. It is located a short, three-block walk to the heart of the town (we walked everywhere). Breakfast was a treat every morning. There are not enough superlatives to describe this place."

Durango, Colorado is known for its close proximity to Mesa Verde National Park and the Durango and Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad. Nestled in southwest Colorado, popular area outdoor activities including rafting, fishing, skiing, hiking, museums and historic sites.
